IN BRIEF.

The case of the State of Texas vs. A. N. Woody, on a charge of libel, will probably be tried before Judge Beckham either to-day or to-morrow.

Mrs. B. B. Drury, having taken the Seaton residence, corner Second and Taylor streets, will take select boarders on and after to-day. Jan 2-11

The GAZETTE returns thanks to Mr. A. W. Hutchens for a copy of the essay of E. J. Donnell, entitled "Slavery and Protection." It is a very readable review and appeal.

Seventeen of Hill county's most substantial farmers passed through the city yesterday with their household goods and a small bunch of cattle, bound for Archer county, where they will locate.

A party of eleven surveyors and land locators passed through our city yesterday on their way to the Panhandle, where they will locate lands, run dividing lines and do other work. Mr. S. G. Maddox was in charge of the party.

To-night the regular meeting of the city council takes place when a large amount of most important business will come before the board. The question of dividing the city into wards in some manner different from the present will have to be decided on to-night or in a day or two, as the law says no new ward shall be created within ninety days of an election.

As a slight testimonial of the high regard entertained for Miss Mary A. Griffith by Misses Jennie Bournant, Mary O'Flaherty, Addie Smaynager, Mattie and Kate Delisle and Addie Letchworth, all of Hart's Bazaar, they presented her a beautiful silver cup on yesterday, New Year's Day. The cup was presented with appropriate remarks by Miss Letchworth, and responded to in a happy manner by Miss Griffith. It is the little acts of kindness, the little tokens of friendship that sweeten life, and aggregated, make up the sum total of human happiness.

To be Tried.

Several months ago a little negro boy while following a circus band, was run over and killed by a street car on lower Main street. The driver was Tom Paine, who was arrested on a charge of negligent homicide. Paine gave bond, his case was docketed, and will probably come to trial Saturday.

The father of the little darkey has brought suit against the company for damages.

PERSONAL.

W. R. Moore of Albany is in the city.

Dr. Burts states that George Ward is doing well.

Ex-Sheriff J. M. Henderson called at the GAZETTE office yesterday.

Tom Adair of Colorado City is stopping in the Fort for a few days.

Judge Hood is looked for on this morning's train to open district court.

S. G. Tankersley, esq., of Henrietta made a visit to the GAZETTE office Sunday.

Charles Goodnight and lady of the Panhandle visited the GAZETTE office yesterday.

A. B. and R. P. Robertson, two prominent cattle men of Colorado City are in town.

Jacob Pittenger, esq., of Wichita, Kansas, a well known stockman, was in the city yesterday.

Capt. J. D. Reed is, we are glad to learn, rapidly improving and will be on the streets soon again.

Buck Dawson and Ben Denson, leading ranchmen of Clay county, visited the GAZETTE office yesterday.

Mrs. W. H. Taylor and Mrs. J. W. Sparrow of Decatur are in our city for a few days, visiting Mrs. C. D. Lindsey.

Mr. Ed. Cobb of the firm of Lang & Cobb, cattle dealers, headquarters in Baylor county, was in the city yesterday.

Rent. Elliott of Keller, summoned as one of the grand inquisition, was in the city yesterday and will probably stay with us some time.

Glenn Habel, esq., of Decatur, a gentleman well known throughout the state as largely interested in cattle, was in the city Sunday.

W. C. Everheart, formerly sheriff of Grayson county, but now a prominent cattleman of Greer county, called on the GAZETTE yesterday.

The GAZETTE has positive information that several young men will go east on the Texas and Pacific Sunday next, as far as Arlington.

Prof. Alex. Hogarth returned from the convention of school superintendents at Houston, well pleased with the work transacted by the meeting.

Marion Bateman left yesterday for the Southwestern University to resume his studies, after spending a week very pleasantly with relatives and friends.

Miss Mattie Capis and Miss Bettie Burney of Johnson Station, who have been visiting at Mrs. Hartsfield's for some time past, returned home yesterday.

An interesting party of Denisonites, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Lerriston, Mrs. M. Lederick, Miss Mattie Boone and Mr. Fred. Hughes, spent New Year's Day in our city, returning to Denison last night by the Missouri Pacific.

The piano will be positively given away on the fifth of January. All those desirous of procuring a chance, which can be had by purchasing five dollars worth of goods, will avail themselves of the opportunity before it is everlastingly too late. 12-31tf

MAX ELSER.

The GAZETTE office was honored yesterday with a very pleasant call from four charming young ladies in the persons of Misses Florence and Donnie Tucker of this city, Miss Addie Mayes of Terrell, Texas, and Miss Addie Callahan of Mineola, Texas. Call again, young ladies, we will always be pleased to see you.

Judge R. J. Boykin of Milan county, a pleasant gentleman and an excellent lawyer, has purchased a home in our city, and is so well pleased generally, that he will stay in Fort Worth for the balance of his life. The GAZETTE welcomes the gentleman and wishes him abundant success.

Dr. H. E. Smith, formerly of Kentucky, a surgeon of some prominence, and one of the faculty of a Northwestern surgical institute, paid the GAZETTE office a visit yesterday. He will open an office at some point in north Texas at an early day, of which notice will be given in these columns.

Another Dollar.

The GAZETTE intended to close the subscription list, started for the benefit of Mrs. Holden, yesterday, but another dollar was handed in yesterday for which we append Mrs. Holden's receipt:

Received January 1, 1883, of the Fort Worth Daily GAZETTE the sum of $1.00, on account of subscriptions made through that office. M. J. Holden.

Mrs. Holden desires to thank the generous donors who have contributed so liberally to alleviate her misfortunes. A widow's thanks and a widow's prayers are all she has to offer, and these she tenders with a grateful heart.

A Pleasant Occasion.

One of the GAZETTE's reporter corps stepped into the Crescent Restaurant last night in search of items and "a dozen raw," and found about a score of the leading spirits of the L'Allegro club discussing a splendid supper prepared for their delectation. The young gentlemen were enjoying the occasion finely, and were in fine spirits. The L'Allegro Club is a popular organization, and the readers of the GAZETTE will join in wishing them a happy and prosperous New Year.

The Winning Ticket.

During the holidays Mr. George C. Byrd gave to everyone purchasing one dollar's worth of goods, a ticket entitling the holder to a chance in a group of dolls. When raffled, Mrs. Dan Parker held the winning ticket, so got the dolls.

Carter's Liver Bitters for the cure of dyspepsia, liver complaint, and all diseases caused by malaria, are made by the makers of Carter's Little Liver Pills, which guarantee their goodness. Sold at wholesale by L. N. Brunswig. 12-31d&w

Removal.

E. Gutzman's barber shop is removed to Main street, next door to Barradell's drug store. Call and have your work done in a first-class barber shop. Jan 2-4f

THE RANGER ROBBERY.

One of the Freebooters Will Surrender.

Not a reader of the GAZETTE but remembers the bold robbery of a train on the T. & P. several months ago, the brief fight, and the active pursuit made by officers of this city, Dallas, and of the express companies. Results from these movements against the gang were meagre, until finally the officers were tired out, and gave up the chase. One day last week a young lawyer in this city received word from John Brown, the youngest member of the band, who detailed his connection with the desperadoes and offering to surrender himself to the authorities if anything could be done for him, in lessening his punishment. Brown's letter was accompanied by documents from several worthy citizens of the west who had known Brown for years, all uniting and speaking well of him. Shortly after his forced departure from home, his little boy, (an only child) died, his wife took sick, and he beseeched her husband to return, make a clean breast of it, accept his punishment, and then lead a better life.

Brown has again held communication with the lawyer in question, who in the mean time has consulted the authorities and the express companies. Word was received Sunday from Brown in which a place and time of meeting was given, in accordance with which, the attorney will sometime this week meet Brown, who will surrender himself to Mr. — and remain in his custody until turned over to the officers of the law. The gentleman who will meet Brown informed a GAZETTE reporter that the boy had actually been forced into the league, and his surrender would be the means of breaking up the entire band.

County Court.

While it is generally supposed the first day of January is a holiday, on which no court business is transacted, this is a mistake, practically illustrated by Judge Beckham yesterday.

The docket was called, and to the financial sorrow of many witnesses were not present.

The only case finally disposed of was the State vs. William Johnson, aggravated assault. Tried by a jury, and acquitted.

In the case of T. J. Gibbons, attachments were ordered for all the witnesses for the state.

In the case of the state vs. Thomas Witten, attachments were ordered for C. W. Hoelzle and Dick Dickson, witnesses for the state, who were brought into court and required to enter into recognizances in the sum of $100 for their appearance this morning.

The docket is well filled, and will require several days hard work to dispose of the cases.

For the Poor.

The ladies of St. Andrew's Aid Association desire to return their thanks through the GAZETTE to the following gentlemen for contributions made to the poor under charge of the association in response to the notice in this paper: Martin Casey, T. B. Woods, T. M. Barr, Randall, Chambers & Co., Templeton & Carter, F. P. Pendery, Schenker & Hochstetler, I. W. Rouse and L. H. Stein. To Mr. Stein the ladies are under special obligations for his instructions to draw on him "regularly for meat for any poor families as long as required." Further contributions may be made through Mrs. Dr. Fitzhugh, the vice-president, or Mrs. H. C. L. Gorman, the secretary and treasurer. They are engaged in a noble work, and the GAZETTE asks for them the co-operation of all who are able to give.

A New Year's Gift.

The night force of the GAZETTE was busily at work last night when the southern mail was invaded by Messrs. K. M. Van Zandt, Jr., W. D. Peak, H. A. Craycroft and A. E. Pitts, who in the name of that popular social institution, the L'Allegro Club, presented one of the knights of the pencil with a handsome and costly gold pen and ebony holder. The gentleman was almost overcome, but blushing deeply and bowing profoundly, he thanked them for the compliment in a few well chosen words. Mr. Hoelzle deeply appreciates the compliment and wishes the L'Allegros a long and pleasant life.

Died.

Grandma Brown, as she has been long and lovingly known, died Monday morning, January 1st, at her home in Smithfield of this county, at the age of seventy-three years. She was the mother of Robt. Bailey and Louisa Brown, two of Tarrant's well known and respected citizens. Mrs. Brown has been a resident of Tarrant county for the past twenty years, was widely known as a true and faithful wife, mother and friend, and her loss will be deeply mourned by a large circle of bereaved friends. She will be buried from her residence in Smithfield, Tuesday, January 2nd.

To Subscribers.

The contract existing between this office and myself requires me to settle in full every Saturday for all papers delivered to subscribers in the city, hence I must either collect every week or at least once a month. No accounts will be carried from the old to the new year. If you do not pay up your paper will be stopped forthwith. Parties not in the city every month must make arrangements for the family to settle each month.

JAS. C. MELTON, City Circulator.

Marriage Licenses.

January first has two licenses set down as its quota.

James B. Hill and Miss Mamie L. Tyson.

T. H. Newman and Mrs. Nannie Armstrong. Mr. Newman called upon Judge Beckham to perform the ceremony, which gave to him as a life partner Mr. Armstrong. The judge in a few words, entirely and agreeable to the occasion, and for a small fee, tied the happy pair in the sacred possible manner, all departing happy.

Notice.

Attorneys who have papers belonging in this office, and in which the cases will likely be called for trial this week, will please return the same to my office to-morrow morning, and oblige.

S. M. HARTSFIELD, Jan. 1, 1883. Clerk Dist. Court.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS.

The Ladies Who Kept Open House.

The happy and pleasant custom of keeping open house was more generally observed yesterday by the ladies of our city than any previous year.

About eleven o'clock calling parties began the rounds, and to the credit of the ladies, and the gallant gentlemen who paid their respects to the fair ones, be it said, not one of the callers was in the least intoxicated. A list of the ladies who kept open house kindly furnished to the GAZETTE by Messrs. Craycroft, Peak, VanZandt and is as follows:

Mrs. S. I. Monarch, assisted by Miss Lizzie Terry.

Miss Frankie Nichols.

Mrs. George Jackson.

Misses Willie and Josie Burts.

Mrs. J. P. Alexander, assisted by Mrs. C. H. Murdock and Miss Ida Farvin.

Mrs. Lilly Byrne.

Miss Annie Turner.

Mrs. R. E. Montgomery, assisted by Miss E. C. Phillips of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, assisted by Miss Rosa Porter and Miss Laura Fakes.

Miss Hellen and Miss Flora Hathaway.

Misses Hattie and Lizzie McCamant, with their friends, Miss Nellie Phillips, Miss Nannie Hopson, and Miss Jennie Howard.

Mrs. L. N. Brunswig and Miss Camille Brunswig.

Misses Georgia and Blanche Sage, with the Misses Smith.

Miss Mollie Rafferty.
